You are cordially invited on a grand tour of England’s Royal Palaces to celebrate one of the most historic milestones in British history, Queen Elizabeth II’s Platinum Jubilee. During this regal affair we discover a fascinating range of sovereign landmarks; starting in London before venturing further afield to Cambridge, King’s Lynn and of course Windsor. Follow in the footsteps of Britain’s longest-reigning monarch as we weave our way around a splendid collection of magnificent palaces, Royal residences, famous country retreats and some of the most glorious gardens in England.

Ten Day Itinerary

August 8: Arrival (depart U.S. on 8/7)
On arrival at Heathrow airport, a private transfer will take you to The Royal Horseguards Hotel, where we stay for the first four nights of our tour. In the evening, join the group for a welcome drink, followed by dinner.

Meals: Dinner

August 9: Royal London, Eltham Palace and Queen’s House Greenwich
We start today with a guided tour of Royal London, by coach and on foot, which includes the Tower of London, the oldest building in London. Offering a peek into thousands of years of history, this former Royal residence also served as a prison where many a noblemen met their gruesome death.

Next, we take a guided tour of the unique Eltham Palace, where Henry VIII spent much of his childhood in the 16th century. Once a medieval palace, then highly popular for Christmas celebrations in Tudor times, it was leased from the Crown and transformed by millionaires into an Art Deco mansion in the 1930s.

We continue to Inigo Jones’ architectural masterpiece, Queen’s House, in Royal Greenwich. This borough of London was the birthplace of Henry VIII, Elizabeth I and Mary, and Henry VIII had two of his six weddings here. The House itself was the first Classical building in the UK and is filled with world-famous artwork.

Next, we take a guided tour of the unique Eltham Palace, where Henry VIII spent much of his childhood in the 16th century. Once a medieval palace, then highly popular for Christmas celebrations in Tudor times, it was leased from the Crown and transformed by millionaires into an Art Deco mansion in the 1930s.

This evening we enjoy dinner together at a local restaurant.

August 10: Buckingham Palace and Clarence House

No trip to London is complete without a visit to the famous Buckingham Palace, the official London residence of the UK’s sovereigns since 1837. We enjoy an audio guided tour of the stunning State Rooms; these are the public rooms where The Queen and other members of the Royal Family entertain their guests on ceremonial, State and official occasions.

We then visit the nearby Clarence House for a guided tour. Once the home of Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother for almost five decades, this is now the official London residence of The Prince of Wales and The Duchess of Cornwall. We discover more about how the house has been altered to reflect the changes in occupancy over nearly two centuries.

The rest of the afternoon is at leisure for further exploration of London.

Meals: Breakfast

August 11: Kensington Palace, Kew Gardens and Kew Palace

Today we enjoy an out-of-hours guided tour of the gorgeous Kensington Palace. The Palace – now the official residence of TRH The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge and their children – boasts the impressively manicured Sunken Garden, a favorite of the late Diana, Princess of Wales. We also wander through Victoria’s re-imagined childhood rooms and take in the majestic King’s State Apartments.

Afterwards we get a chance to stretch our legs during a visit to the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew. Dating back to the early 18th century as a Royal palace, Kew Gardens is now a globally-renowned institution for plant-based research. There are a range of different areas to explore and we also discover Kew Palace, once home to George III and Queen Charlotte.

Meals: Breakfast

August 12: Hampton Court Palace and Cambridge

This morning we check out of the hotel and head to Hampton Court Palace for a dive into the fascinating world of the Tudor court during our private guided tour. We experience the private life (and very public dramas) of Henry VIII, while we explore one of Europe’s most sophisticated palaces and the enchanting riverside gardens.

We continue to Cambridge for a guided walking tour. Highlights include the exquisite architecture, ancient colleges and the pleasant river which winds its way around this classic university city.

We then check in to our hotel for the next three nights, the University Arms. After dinner at the hotel, we enjoy a fascinating talk with a guest speaker.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

August 13: Sandringham and King’s Lynn

Our first visit today is the ultimate country retreat, the Sandringham Estate, loved by The Queen herself and the private residence of four generations of British Monarchs since the 1860s. We learn all about its Royal connections during our visit, discover the collection of Royal cars in the Transport Museum and enjoy some time outside to discover the magnificent walled and water gardens.

Afterwards we head to nearby King’s Lynn, a charming market town renowned for its extensive history. With a wander around the cobbled narrow streets, flanked with old merchants’ houses, we soak up the story of the town’s maritime trade and fishing communities.

This evening we enjoy dinner together at a local restaurant in Cambridge.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

August 14: Burghley House

We start today with a guided tour of Burghley House, one of the grandest houses of the first Elizabethan Age, built (and mostly designed) by William Cecil, the Lord High Treasurer to Queen Elizabeth I. Inside the house we discover historic collections comprising of works of art, early tapestries, impressive Japanese ceramics and sculptures.

The rest of the day is at leisure for further exploration of Cambridge.

Meals: Breakfast

August 15: Hatfield House and The Savill Garden

This morning we enjoy a guided tour of Hatfield House, located Macdonald Windsor Hotel, where we stay for the last two nights of our tour.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

August 16: Windsor Castle and Frogmore House

Today we visit Windsor Castle, the oldest and largest inhabited castle in the world which is still one of the official residences of Queen Elizabeth II today. Established in the 11th century by William the Conqueror, it is regularly used for ceremonial and State occasions. The magnificent State Apartments are furnished with some of the finest works of art to admire during our audio guided tour.

We then head to Frogmore House, nestled within the Home Park of Windsor Castle and a firm favorite as a royal retreat for centuries. During our guided tour we discover the impressive Mary Moser Room, commissioned by Queen Charlotte to reflect her passion for botany.

Back at the hotel tonight we enjoy a farewell dinner together.

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

August 17: Departure

A private transfer will take you back to Heathrow airport for your return flight home.

Meals: Breakfast

Please note: the order of excursions is subject to change and guided tours are subject to restrictions.
Frequently Asked Questions

How do I make a booking?
Call National Trust Tours at 888-484-8785 to register by phone (preferred method) Monday - Friday from 9am to 5pm (EST) or register online at www.nationaltrusttours.com

When are payments due?
When you confirm your booking with us, a non-refundable deposit of $750 per person is required to secure your place. The final balance payment must be paid to us no later than 90 days prior to the tour departure date. Of course, full payment can be made at the time of booking if you prefer and for bookings made less than 8 weeks before the tour departs this will be a requirement.

How can I pay?
We accept debit and credit cards (except American Express), for deposits and full payment.

What paperwork will I receive?
When your booking is confirmed, we will email you a booking confirmation document along with a copy of our full Terms and Conditions. 90 days prior to the tour, we will prepare and send you our Travel Pack with your finalized information, reading list and tour itinerary details.

Do I need travel insurance?
Yes, this is essential; we can only accept a booking on the basis that you have taken out a full and comprehensive travel insurance policy to cover the full duration of your trip. We will ask you to confirm this to us. If you choose not to take out travel insurance, this is done so against our advice and at your own risk; we will ask you to sign a declaration form indemnifying us from any responsibility or cost in the event of medical emergency or repatriation. Information on travel insurance will be sent to you upon tour confirmation.

Do I need a passport and visa?
It is your responsibility to ensure you have a passport which must be valid for 6 months after the return date of your trip. Tourist visas are not required for US citizens visiting the UK for under 90 days solely for the purpose of tourism. If you are not a US citizen or you are combining your visit with business, it is your responsibility to check the requirements for visiting the UK, you can do this by visiting the UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) website to determine whether you need a visa to enter the United Kingdom.

Are there single traveler room supplements?
We have a small number of rooms on each tour that are sold with no single supplement; once these are sold out we charge a supplement for any additional single rooms which varies for each tour. You can contact us to enquire about single supplement prices. Please book early as single rooms sell fast.

Are room upgrades available?
All of the hotels on these tours have been hand-picked for their high quality of accommodation and service. However, in some instances room upgrades are available and we would be happy to assist you to arrange these should you be interested.

Can you arrange extra hotel nights?
Yes, if you decide to arrive a few days before the start of the tour or leave a few days after the end of the tour, we are happy to arrange extra nights’ accommodation. However, this service is only available at hotels that feature in the tour on which you are traveling and a $35 administration fee is charged for this service.

Are meals included?
All breakfasts are included on all tours. Certain lunches and dinners are also included and you should study the tour itinerary in this brochure to determine what meals are included on your chosen tour. Meals not mentioned are not included and all beverages are at your own expense throughout the tour.

What do I do about any dietary requirements?
Please inform us at the time of booking, we will pass your information on to the hotel, property or restaurant who will do their best to accommodate your requirements.

How many passengers will be in the Albion Journeys tour group?
Typically, between 10 and 30.

What is the role of the Tour Director?
Our friendly Tour Director will meet you for a welcome dinner at the beginning of each tour. Their role is to facilitate the smooth organization of all operational aspects of the tour. If you have any queries or experience any issues during the tour, they are there to assist you.

Will the excursions change?
Please note that we plan our tours far in advance and the order and availability of excursions may be subject to change. In the event of a property not being available to visit, we will substitute with a similar visit, and you will be informed of the full details.

How much walking will there be on these tours?
As much or as little as you like. Any included guided tours will operate at a fairly relaxed pace, as with many historic houses and gardens, you may experience some uneven flooring and steps along the way. Of course, you will always have the option to explore any venue by yourself at your own pace. Any specific tour in this brochure with more than an average amount of walking will be clearly noted in the itinerary. If you have any specific concerns, please contact us.

What are the arrangements for luggage?
The standard luggage allowance is one item of hand luggage and one suitcase per person restricted to a maximum weight of 20kgs (44 pounds). We do provide porterage at each of the hotels used on our tours, however, as with all things of a personal nature, it is your responsibility to ensure your suitcase is loaded onto the vehicles we use throughout the tour.

What clothing should I bring?
Comfortable leisurewear is recommended for the daytime. In the evening many participants prefer to wear smarter dress for dining. Whilst gentlemen may choose to wear a jacket in the restaurant in the evening, at most hotels this is not obligatory, we will of course inform you if any hotel does have a dress code. It is advisable to bring layered clothing and a light waterproof jacket. We recommend sturdy footwear when visiting gardens as the ground may be soft underfoot. Many historic properties request ladies do not wear high heels which may damage flooring.

Can you arrange my flights to the UK?
Albion Journeys do not arrange your air travel for our tours; this is your responsibility and gives you the flexibility to decide on your own routing.

What should I budget for tipping?
While it is not compulsory, it is customary to tip the coach driver and tour director as well as offering a small gratuity to the transfer drivers to acknowledge the services they have provided. As a guideline we suggest a rate of £5 per day for your driver, £10 per day for your Tour Director and a couple of pounds for your transfer driver. Gratuities for hotel staff and the tour guides you may meet at properties on your day trips are covered by Albion Journeys.
